

Succession Planning Update
December 5, 2010

The Mission Study Committee has completed its initial work by way of the Reveal Study survey. Thank you for your input. The Committee is now examining MVPC's history with an eye toward discerning God's leading for the future.

Nominations for the Interim Pastor Search Committee (IPSC) have been received and a proposed committee will be presented to Session for approval in January. Initial work has been done by the Personnel Committee on drafting a job description and getting word out about this position. The Farewell Committee will be presented to Session for approval this month.
