Palm Sunday, Matthew 21:1-11

1. Icebreaker: If you were King for a day, what would you do? Why?
2. Read Matthew 21:1 and Zechariah 14, verses 3-4. Jesus is the fulfillment of prophecy in Zechariah 14. How does your understanding of the Old Testament change when you realize that it all points to Jesus?
3. Jesus is regularly revealed as a peaceful King. What images other than that do you hold about Jesus? What's the difference?
4. Sometimes the Jesus that scripture reveals is different than the Savior we want. Talk with your group about the image of Jesus you create. Spend some time repenting of false images of Jesus and praying for one another.
5. Read Revelation 5:1-5. Scripture repeatedly speaks about Jesus' sole ability (meaning He's the only one to do it) to redeem humanity. Who in your life needs redemption that only Jesus can offer? Pray for them by name.
6. Easter is quickly approaching. Who needs your invitation to hear the Good News of Jesus and His resurrection within the next hour? Pray for them and make the ask for them to join you at one of our Easter services.
