

Dads' Adventure Weekend at Camp Timberwolf

What to bring:

- Sleeping bag and pillow
- Tent (if not in cabin)
- Camping air mattress (if not in cabin)
- Bath and beach towels
- Toiletries, including soap and shampoo for showers
- Clothing for outdoor activities (hiking, fishing, boating, etc.)
- Warm clothes for evening
- Pajamas (for transit to and from bathrooms/shower room)
- Sturdy shoes (beach shoes also recommended)
- Swimsuit
- Rash guard for children (sun protection at beach day)
- Hat and sunglasses
- Sunscreen
- Mosquito repellent
- Chap stick
- Flashlight or headlamp
- Reusable water bottle
- Camp/beach chairs
- Fishing License (adults who will be fishing)
- Snacks for your car ride to camp
- Snacks for kids between meals

Optional:

- Life jackets for children (life jackets will be available at camp, but dads are encouraged to bring their own, especially for younger children)
- Sports equipment (baseballs, footballs, frisbees, etc.)
- Water toys, floaties
- Fishing gear (some fishing gear and bait available at camp)
- Lantern
- Cooler for camp and the beach
- Camera
- Binoculars
- E-Z up Canopy (for beach activities on Friday)
- Baby wipes
- A family skit idea!