1. The sermon discussed our “citizenship in heaven.” How does this concept challenge or change the way you navigate daily life in our current culture?
2. Paul encourages the Philippians to stand firm in one spirit. What are some practical ways we can stand firm together as a church in the face of external pressures?
3. The sermon mentioned that unity isn't just about getting along, but about moving forward together. Can you share an experience where you've seen this kind of unity in action?
4. We heard about both external and internal threats to unity. Which do you find more challenging in your own life or in our church community, and why?
5. The sermon ended with a call to “live like citizens of heaven.” What's one area in your life where you feel challenged to live this out more fully in the coming week?
